Thursday evening: 6:45 – 8:30 pm. Cost: $15/person(incl. light refreshments)

Can you hear me baby? Stories of sex, love and OMG birth!

The Power of the Play: Using musical theatre to educate parents and professionals about pregnancy, birth and choice. Join playwright, Lisa Rafel and composer, Gary Malkin for an exciting “Keynote Performance” of their new musical play. This presentation includes live performances, excerpts of music and scenes from the play. The play explores the personal, challenging, surprising, and often hilarious situations that arise during pregnancy and birth, while raising questions and concerns about the “medicalization of birth” and the choices women are making regarding how, when, and where they give birth. Audience discussion following program.

Due to limited seating, advance registration is required.
